

NEW YORK STUDIO SCHOOL

OF DRAWING, PAINTING & SCULPTURE

Saturday Oil Painting
with Clintel Steed
Fall 2010

Class Hours: Saturday 2:00PM – 6:00PM
Dates: September 25 - December 11, 2010
NO CLASS: 11/27/2010

The students will work on three paintings from the model. Each painting will go for four weeks. In the classroom, students will focus on color, composition, and also the narrative of how the figure is placed within the room. Each painting should be at least 48" x 48". (The canvas can be bigger but no smaller and it must be a square.) The class will explore how a painting changes when working on it for a prolonged time; thinking about space and scale and the relationship to the square. This class is aimed at serious students, both beginners and experienced students. The common theme for the student participating is the desire to learn and work hard.

Materials List:

18" x 24" paper
Drawing board for museum
Pencils
At least three (3) 48" x 48" canvases, gessoed
Glass palette
Brushes any size

Paints:

Titanium White	Burnt Umber
Lemon Yellow	Raw Sienna
Naples Yellow
Cadmium Medium Yellow
Yellow Ochre
Indian Red
Cadmium Medium Red
Alizarin Crimson
Rose Madder
Cobalt Blue
Ultramarine Blue
Cerulean Blue
Terre Verde
Sap Green
Viridian Green
Chrome Green
Van Dyke Brown	